

Welcome to The Guildford Hotel

A QUICK HISTORY

- 1883 The first development of The Guildford Hotel began
- 1886 The Guildford Hotel was licensed
- 1891 George Hiscox established the hotel as we know it today
- 1915 The front facade and iconic Belvedere that you see today was commissioned
- 1981 Major renovations introduced a bottle shop, restaurant, 3 bars & 26 rooms
- 1993 The building was added to the State Heritage Register
- 2008 The Hotel was engulfed in flames, leaving a shell sitting derelict for years

WE ARE PASSIONATE ABOUT FOOD, DRINK & HISTORY

Step up and ask our bar people for their recommendation on one of the 18 taps or a bottled beer, with local brews, ciders and hops from afar. Our wine list showcases the best of neighbouring Swan Valley, WA and our overseas favourites.

We like to keep it quite casual, we also love to share. Our menu is not limited by country or style. Take a wander to the beer garden to discover our pride and joy, the smoker named Thomas. If you're lucky, you may also find the Pit Master, he is always happy to have a chat!

Our meat is smoked low & slow, allowing the full flavour to develop and served at an optimal 75 degrees to ensure it is perfectly tender and juicy.
